Mrs. Bowne has had a tempestuous domestic romance. She is a niece of Charles Taylor, owner of the Hotel Martinique, and a daughter of John H. Taylor, a Harvard man. Her first husband vigorously pummeled Walter Bowne, also wealthy, when he found him with his wife at the Martinique two years ago.

Subsequently Manning divorced his wife. A few months before, Bowne's wife had eloped with Jordan L. Mott 3d, son of the iron magnate. They fled to the Far East together on a freighter. Young Mott was married at the time, his wife making her home with his father. When Bowne got a divorce he promptly married Mrs. Manning.

"I am determined," Mrs. Bowne said to-day at her apartments, No. 331 West End avenue, "to get that child, and although the courts awarded the baby to my husband I am sure that, when all the circumstances regarding our matrimonial affairs are known, the baby will be restored to me."

TWENTY-ONE FIREMEN MOVED TO HIGHER RANKS

Two Are Made Captains by Commissioner Adamson and Two Are Appointed Lieutenants.

Twenty-one firemen were summoned to the office of Fire Commissioner Adamson this morning and elevated in rank. Two were made captains, two were promoted to the grade of lieutenant and two others were advanced to the rank of engineer on fireboats. Fifteen uniformed firemen were appointed to serve for a probationary period of three months at $1,000 a year. All of the appointments and promotions were made from the top of the civil service lists.

Lieut. Bernard Brookwohl of Engine Company No. 2, Queens, and Lieut. Charles Jacobs of Hook and Ladder Company No. 15, Jamaica, were the men advanced to the grade of Captain, at $2,400 a year. First-Grade Fireman Wallace R. Pelham of Engine Company No. 54, Brooklyn, and Charles H. Ripley, Engine Company No. 361, Long Island City, were made Lieutenants, at $2,100 a year. Cornelius F. Boylan, Engine Company No. 266, Brooklyn, and P. O. Matricchio, Engine Company No. 773, Whitestone, L. I., both first-grade firemen, were made engineers, at $1,900.

Seven Two Girls, Two Men at Casey. Two men and two women, arrested early this morning by Mounted Police, man Hahn, who found them quarrelling in a cab on Surf avenue, Coney island, were locked up on charges of disorderly conduct. One of the women, who said she was Miss Ethel Garland, twenty-two years old, living at No. 49 East 100th street, and thirty-fifth street, the woman, was taken to the Coney island hospital suffering from bruises and lacerations. MORE ARRESTS LIKELY FOR PRISON DRUG TRAFFIC

Dr. Elijah Katz Succeeds Dr. Baxter as Resident Physician on Blackwells Island.

Commissioner Davis of the Department of Correction appointed to-day Dr. Elijah Katz as resident physician of the Workhouse, Blackwells Island, to succeed Dr. Charles H. Baxter, under arrest on a charge of selling drugs to prisoners. Dr. Katz continued her investigation of the drug traffic on the island and while she said there would be no arrests to-day, it was intimated that other officials might be implicated.

Detectives were sent to Riverhead, L. I., by Dr. Katz to learn whether Dr. Charles H. Baxter arrested and found guilty there four years ago on a charge of falsifying insurance papers is the same man she has just dismissed from the Department. Efforts are being made to induce residents of Suffolk County who knew Dr. Baxter of Riverhead to come to New York and determine whether the two men are identical.

Dr. Katz, the new resident physician, was one of three physicians working under Dr. Baxter. He is a graduate of Columbia University.
